The Annual Good Design Show Set to Open in Athens, Greece Recognizing Thousands of Designers and Manufactures for the World's 'Best of the Best' in New Global Design for Consumer Products, Environments, Graphics and Packaging

The award ceremony takes place as part of the 2023-2024 Good Design Exhibition with a Dinner Gala at The European Centre for Architecture Art Design and Urban Studies on March 15 in Athens, Greece.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS (March 1, 2024) — Founded in Chicago in 1950 by Charles and Ray Eames, Eero Saarinen, and MoMA curator Edgar J. Kaufmann Jr., GOOD DESIGN® is internationally recognized as the ultimate, global symbol for design excellence worldwide.

The exhibition and Gala events take place at The European Center for Architecture Art Design and Urban Studies (74 Mitropoleos Street) in Athens opening on March 15 and continuing through May 12, 2024.

GOOD DESIGN, first awarded in 1950, is the oldest competition of its kind and the most internationally sought-after seals of quality for design excellence.

Considered as the most coveted and prestigious award in the world, the GOOD DESIGN is synonymous with design superiority and is recognized by industry professionals as a certificate of quality design.

The annual competition is curated by the Finnish/Lithuanian/American architecture and design critic Christian Narkiewicz-Laine who also serves as the President of The Chicago Athenaeum.

In 2023, hundreds of submissions were received by the Museum for product and environmental designs and graphics and packaging launched on the market between January 1, 2021 and June 1, 2023 from over 56 countries.

An international jury of design experts evaluated hundreds of submissions on four key design qualities: product function, aesthetics, ease of use, and responsibility/sustainability—the same criteria written in 1950.

From a short list of over 4,500 submissions, the entries were then judged on nine criteria, including degree of innovation, functionality, formal quality, ergonomics, durability, ecological compatibility, and symbolic and emotional content.

The final jury selected over 1,200 products and graphics worthy of the GOOD DESIGN Award for electronics, robotics, kitchen and bath products, household goods and appliances, furniture and lighting, medical, transportation, installations, environments, home and office products, personal products, new technologies, floor and wallcovering, fabrics/textiles, architectural building products, recycling, safety and security, tabletop, tools, children and pet products, interactive design and mobile applications, sports and recreational designs, and graphics and packaging as a testament to the exceptional quality of the product design and the unwavering commitment of the designers and manufacturers behind them.

The 2023 edition recognized the creative scope and innovation of each submission.

The 73rd GOOD DESIGN jury members included some of the world's foremost design authorities:

- Emmanuelle Andreani, Principal, [siz'-ix] architectes
- Jon Pickard, Principal, Pickard Chilton
- Kasper Meldgaard, Principal, Says Who ApS
- Luke Pearson, Principal, PearsonLloyd Design Ltd.
- Michele Menescardi, Principal, Michele Menescardi Designer
- Renato Benedetti, Principal, Benedetti Architects
- Ross Wimer, Head of Architecture, AECOM
- Tapio Anttila, Principal, Tapio Antilla Design Ltd.
- Treasure Hinds, Partner, Anvil Studios, Inc.

“Winning GOOD DESIGN is a testament to the commitment of designers and manufacturers to create intuitive and easy-to-use products and bold and new innovative solutions for product design,” states curator Narkiewicz-Laine.

“In keeping with the same spirit of Saarinen and Eames, the 2023 GOOD DESIGN winners overall have set an ever higher, bold standard for sustainability with an extraordinary design sense that is increasingly sophisticated, cosmopolitan, and contemporary.”

“In this year of the competition, I have been particularly struck by the ingenious creativity shown by the award-winning products. It is really impressive and praiseworthy that there are still designs out there that can surprise us with their form and functionality.”

“Since its inception, the goal of GOOD DESIGN has always remained to identify and honor the pinnacle of design excellence,” states Narkiewicz-Laine

“It’s inspiring to see signs of more sustainable approaches in design—sustainability as ‘the new luxury’—meaning replacing some of old, irrelevant aspirations, with new and meaningful and clear objectives.”

“The GOOD DESIGN Awards sets the benchmark for what a design award represents and has endured 73 years to become a career-defining catalyst for those talented enough to win.”

For this 73rd edition of GOOD DESIGN, award winners are honored and celebrated at the “Good Design Show,” which opens at The European Centre for Architecture Art Design and Urban Studies in Athens, Greece starting March 15 and continuing through May 12, 2024.

A glamorous awards presentation and gala dinner will be held at the foot of the Acropolis that same night.

Dinner tickets are available by contacting Ms. Konstadina Geladaki, Director of Communications at

GOOD DESIGN's Chief Curator on the 2023 Laureates:

"From the thousands of designers and manufacturers who participated this year, the winners of GOOD DESIGN for 2023 have proved that they have created excellent products worthy of winning an award. The products won over the jury not only through their aesthetic, but also thanks to their incomparable functionality. With their designs, the award winners are setting the highest standards in their industry. I wish to congratulate them most sincerely on their continued success," said Christian Narkiewicz-Laine, Architecture and Design Critic and Chief Curator of Good Design

NOTE TO REPORTERS AND EDITORS: Photographs of the 2023 GOOD DESIGN Awards are available for download.
